

Notice of Privacy Practices For The Arc of Monmouth

The Arc of Monmouth has a legal duty to safeguard the protected health information (P.H.I) of the people we serve. All employees, volunteers, consultants and other personnel of The Arc of Monmouth are legally required to protect the privacy of health information.

This “protected health information”(P.H.I.) includes information that can be used to identify a served individual. We are allowed to release information about an individual in order to provide treatment, to obtain payment for services we provide, and in our operational activities. We will release only the minimum amount of information necessary to accomplish our purpose or the need for the information.

A Privacy Statement listing the details of our responsibilities and the rights of those we serve is available by contacting:
